SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT FROM THE MESSAGE (5-17-20)

*What are some things you look forward to when things return to “normal?”

*This season of “sheltering-at-home” has provided lots of time to take inventory of our lives. How would you like your life to be better as a result of this of life?

*Four Key Questions were raised in today’s message, please take a moment to consider some questions related to each of these questions:

1) Have you accepted Jesus as your Savior? If so, what were the circumstances that lead to this decision?

2) Have you truly submitted your will to God’s will? What is a time in your life in which you felt like there was a conflict of wills between God’s will and your’s? Is there currently an area of your life that seems like a conflict of wills between God’s will and your’s?

3) Do you have a servant’s heart? In what ways do you still need to grow in this area?

4) Are you doing all that you can to lead others to Christ? How could you be more intentional in this area? When you think about those who aren’t currently in fellowship with God, who weighs heavy on your heart?

*Take a moment to bring these things to God as you close in prayer.
